How to Apply for Advance Parole

An application for advance parole can be filed separately or concurrently with Form I-485 if it is anticipated that the alien may wish to travel soon after filing the I-485. The application for advance parole consists of:

- Form I-131 (Application for Travel Document)
- Filing Fee payable to Department of Homeland Security
- Two immigration-style photographs
- Copy of receipt notice for I-485 confirming that application has been filed unless filing concurrently
- Copy of the picture page of the passport
- Letter with itinerary and reason for travel including a telephone number to reach you when the travel document is ready
