Campus Organizations

Registered Clubs & Organizations (RCOs) are a very important part of campus life. Each year there are more than 160 RCOs at UCSF. These organizations cover a broad range of interests, including educational, social, cultural, artistic, recreational, political and spiritual. Many groups are of particular interest to our international students and scholars because of their focus on international and cultural issues. We invite you to inquire about any group that may interest you.
