LGBT Resources

UCSF supports and welcomes individuals of all different sexual orientations and gender identities!

You should never tolerate any sort of disrespect, discomfort, or harassment, because of your gender identity, sexual orientation and/or gender expression at UCSF. If anything of the sort happens, contact the International Students and Scholars Office [1], LGBT Center [2], or a trusted university resource that can help you respond to the situation appropriately.

If you are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, or are uncertain about your sexuality or gender identity, there are many resources available to you through UCSF and external organizations.
