Considerations for the U.S. Presidential Election

Tasks to Consider Completing Before November 3

- Grocery shopping/prescription pick-up
- Rescheduling non-urgent appointments for following week
- Identifying alternate modes of transportation, in case public transport is impacted
- Discussing accommodations with your PI or instructors if you are unable to attend work/school in person
- Identifying mental health providers and confirming co-pay structure through your insurance plan
- Ask your childcare center about potential closures

Post-Election Considerations

- Marches or protests may occur in your neighborhood
- Avoid domestic or international travel without first speaking with your immigration adviser
- The election outcome will impact different groups of people in different ways
